Voting On The Proposed Constitutional Amendment Throughout County Is Light, Reflecting Uncertainty In Public's Mind on Proposition of Swapping Bonds

Bucks County yesterday rolled up another old-time smashing majority for the Republican ticket, despite setbacks in some of the Lower End industrial centers.

Unofficial returns indicated a majority for the Republicans of 15,000, which is one of the biggest in many years. This was achieved in the process of polling the made by Rotarians in Bensalem biggest turnout ever recorded in this county.

Feature of the Bucks County contest, along with the smashing indorsement of the Republican ticket headed by General Eisenhower, was re-election of Bucks County's first Congressman in twenty years-Representative Karl C. King, of Morrisville, who won election to his first full Several Other Motorists Are term in the Bucks-Lehigh District by 25,000 majority. King, who is nationally known as Everyone under 66 and in good health can join. There are no other requirements. Cost is low. Your whole family can join!

BLUE CROSS May save you and your family up to hundreds — or thousands — of dollars

Your membership* gives you the hospital care you need to make you well-not limited cash that may pay only a small part of your bill. Here's what you get:

- 1. SEMIPRIVATE ROOM at any of the 89 BLUE Cross member hospitals in the Philadelphia area for from 21 to 30 days (depending on how long you have been a subscriber). The full quota of Blue Cross days starts all over again for each subscriber 90 days after his last hospital discharge.
- 2. MEALS, including special dietary service.
- 3. GENERAL NURSING SERVICE
- 4. ALL DRUGS AND MEDICATIONS IN GENERAL USE, including the costly "miracle drugs." Your bill for drugs alone may be hundreds of dollars. But as a BLUE CROSS member you pay not one penny for them.
- 5. USE OF THE OPERATING ROOM

BLUE SHIELD

Pays all or a major part of your medical-surgical bills

Your membership* relieves you of worry about doctor bills when someone in your family must go to the hospital. Here's what you get:

1. SURGICAL BILLS PAID. BLUE SHIELD pays your surgeon for operations necessary to treat any disease, injury, fracture or dislocation. BLUE SHIELD pays him according to its liberal fee schedule for the care he has given you.

2. DOCTOR BILLS PAID. At your option, BLUE SHIELD will pay your doctor when you go to the hospital even though no operation is 3. MATERNITY BENEFITS

4. MANY OTHER BENEFITS, including dental surgery services and X-ray treatments.

5. SPECIAL PROVISION FOR FAMILIES WITH LIMITED INCOMES. Cooperating doctors in Pennsylvania have agreed to make no charge to you whatsoever for services covered by BLUE SHIELD when your family has a limited income (for instance, not over $4,000, and there are two or more dependents).

*Blue Shield benefits, are nation wide. Once a member, you may stay a member as long as you wish.

May save you and your family up to hundreds — or thousands — of dollars

Your membership* gives you the hospital care you need to make you well-not limited cash that may pay only a small part of your bill. Here's what you get:

1. SEMIPRIVATE ROOM at any of the 89 BLUE Cross member hospitals in the Philadelphia area for from 21 to 30 days (depending on how long you have been a subscriber). The full quota of BLUE CROSS days starts all over again for each subscriber 90 days after his last hospital discharge.

2. MEALS, including special dietary service.

3. GENERAL NURSING SERVICE

4. ALL DRUGS AND MEDICATIONS IN GENERAL USE, including the costly "miracle drugs." Your bill for drugs alone may be hundreds of dollars. But as a BLUE CROSS member you pay not one penny for them.

5. USE OF THE OPERATING ROOM

6. SURGICAL DRESSINGS

7. OXYGEN

8. MATERNITY BENEFITS 9. GENEROUS BENEFITS for X-ray examina-
